SHANGHAI SUBJECTED TO HEAVY SHELLING IN RENEWED ATTACK

Planes Bomb Chinese Troop Concentrations at Many Points—Japanese Advance Rapidly on Northern Fronts, Cutting Off 50,000 Defenders From Source of Supplies

SHANGHAI, Sept. 18 (AP)—Japanese artillery unleashed a new bombardment of the Markham Road section today, bringing fresh perils to Shanghai's war-shocked international settlement. Japanese shells crashed into the area close to the patrol assigned United States marines as Japanese navy planes, taking advantage of clearing weather, resumed bombardment of Chinese positions on a wide front.

The aerial attack was launched against Lihong, Lotien, Kiangwan, Chapei and Pootung. Japanese naval officials declared, aiming at Chinese troops concentrations in those sections.

At the same time a Japanese army officer asserted Japan's land forces had repulsed Chinese counterattacks on a twenty-five-mile front extending from the north at Lihong to Shanghai's outskirts.

MAKE IMPORTANT GAINS

The Japanese were said to have advanced within a mile of Lihong, the powerful wireless transmitting base to the north where Chinese forces were in strong positions.

Heavy Chinese casualties were reported in the counterattacks when Japanese permitted the advancing troops to push within close range before opening a withering machine gun fire that halted the Chinese.

Japanese said fresh army units landed near the Yangtze mouth, but would not say where. Neutral military observers believed the Japanese were trying to place an expedition in Pootung, the area just across the Whangpoo River from Shanghai. Two Chinese divisions are entrenched there.

NEW PERILS TO SHANGHAI
Such an extension of land operations would bring new perils to Shanghai's 3,500,000 inhabitants.

CONSERVATIVE HEAD RESIGNS

Hon. G. S. Harrington, Former Premier of Nova Scotia, Tenders Resignation

HALIFAX, Sept. 17 (AP)—Former Conservative Premier of Nova Scotia, Hon. George S. Harrington today tendered a letter of resignation as head of the Provincial Conservative party to George C. Nowlan, president of the Conservative Association of Nova Scotia.

Colonel Harrington was defeated personally in Cape Breton South in the provincial election, June 29, when the Liberal Government of Premier Angus L. Macdonald was returned to power with a majority of twenty-five seats to five.

SECOND RESIGNATION

It was the second time Colonel Harrington had asked to be freed from leadership of the Conservative party since he became leader and Premier of the Province in 1930, when Hon. E. N. Rhodes accepted a portfolio in the Federal Government.

Two years ago, he resigned to become chairman of the Dominion Employment and Social Service Commission. Upon his subsequent resignation from chairmanship of the commission, he again was chosen leader at a party convention at Truro in 1932.

Colonel Harrington first entered Nova Scotia's political field in the election of 1925 and became Minister of Public Works and Mines in the Rhodes Government upon his election to the House. He held a seat in the Legislature from then until his defeat in the last election.

WOMEN OPPOSE GOVERNMENT

EDMONTON, Sept. 17 (AP)—Protest against policies of the Alberta Social Credit Government, which it was said, "would lead to either secession or dictatorship," was voiced when 300 women attended a meeting here today of the newly-formed Alberta Women's League for united action. An overflow meeting drew a crowd of 100 women.

Two Boys Make Freak Catch

Dick Porter, 518 Beach Drive, and Bob Hiberson, 853 Byng Street, hold some kind of a fishing record, as the above picture shows. They were fishing off Shoal Bay when they struck a ten-pound coho. The forty-four-pound cod seized the hooked fish in its mouth and gave the boys a few anxious moments before they finally landed the pair. The hungry cod refused, or was unable, to release his intended prey.

Roosevelt Backs Reforms as Stop To Dictatorship

In Constitution Address President Reopens Campaign for Supreme Court Changes—Declares Raising of Living Standards of Masses Alone Insures Against Doubt of Democracy

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17 (AP)—President Roosevelt renewed his fight for "rejuvenated" Supreme Court tonight with a warning that unless social reform is assured the nation is threatened by dictatorship.

Commemorating the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Constitution, he urged that America pledge its "fidelity to the Constitution itself and not to its misinterpretations."

CROWD HEARS SPEECH

A responsive but shivering audience of thousands, gathered in the open air beneath the Washington Monument, heard the chief executive return to the battle in which he suffered his most severe defeat little more than a month ago. Estimates of the crowd varied from 50,000 to 75,000.

The tears that remained from that battle were not forgotten by his listeners and there was speculation whether the Democrats who

Sir James Barrie's Will Probated—Shows Estate Valued at $867,335

LONDON, Sept. 17 (AP)—Sir James Barrie, novelist and playwright, who died June 19, amassed a fortune of $867,335, probate of his will showed today.

The largest gifts listed in the will were to Lady Cynthia Asquith, his secretary, and to Peter Davies, his adopted son, who inspired the story of "Peter Pan."

GIFT TO ACTRESS

One of the bequests was of $10,000 to actress Elizabeth Bergner for "the best performance ever given in any play of mine." Presumably the author referred to her work in "The Boy David," which opened in London last December.

Sir James left $150,000 and all rights to his plays and books other than "Peter Pan" to Lady Cynthia Davies was given $30,000.

TAMMANY OLD GUARD ROUTED

Pro-Roosevelt Candidates Win New York Poll by Wide Margins

NEW YORK, Sept. 17 (AP)—Tammany old guard was left gasping tonight under an avalanche of votes that pushed both major parties behind pro-Roosevelt candidates for the November mayoralty election.

Mayor Fiorella H. La Guardia, Republican-Fusionist and supporter of the President, was renominated by a wide margin in yesterday's primary election over Senator Royal S. Copeland, Tammany Democrat, who sought the backing of both parties on the strength of his anti-new deal stand in Washington.

BIG PLURALITY

In the Democratic primary, Senator Copeland was overwhelmed by the pro-Roosevelt candidate, Jeremiah T. Mahoney, who rolled up a plurality of almost two to one.

Increase of 427 Admissions Over Last Year Shown

AN increase of 427 paid admissions over the figures for the same day last year was recorded at the Provincial Exhibition yesterday. A total of 3,814 persons paid their entrance fees to the grounds yesterday, while 3,387 passed through the gates on the corresponding date in 1936. A comparison of the total figures for the week to date shows that this year 27,367 persons paid admissions, with 24,549 persons passing through the gate in 1936, which represents a total increase of 2,818.

COURT FREES RANCHWOMAN

Wife Jailed on Husband's Complaint Has Conviction Quashed

Slight, fair-haired Kathleen Harvey, fifty-seven, of Driftwood Creek near Smithers, serving a four-month sentence at Oakalla Prison Farm for theft from her octogenarian husband, was freed by their lordships in Appeal Court today. She had already served three months.

Appearing in person, Mrs. Harvey, in clear voice, excellent English, and without animus, told Chief Justice Archer, Martin and Associate Justices McPhillips and Sloan, of her efforts to force her eighty-six-year-old miner-trapper husband, C. O. Harvey, to forsake his mining prospect in the Babine Mountains and return to their ranch. These efforts, she said, only earned her a four-month term in Oakalla from Supt. Magistrate H. B. Campbell, of Smithers, because she would not accept suspended sentence on condition that she make restitution to her husband of the groceries and mining supplies she took from his mountain cabin and removed to their ranch three and one-half miles distant.

WAS SECOND ATTEMPT

Once before, Mrs. Harvey had cached supplies of her husband and kept him from going into the hills, but on the previous occasion he laid no information.

No formal speeches have been arranged for the trip.

Mrs. Roosevelt will accompany the President on the trip and they will visit their daughter, Mrs. John Boettiger, in Seattle.

DRAFTING DETAILS

White House officials emphasized that detailed plans for the trip had not been finally determined and that the full itinerary would not be completed for a day or two.

The announcement conditioned the trip upon the absence of "unforeseen" developments which might prevent its being made. Marvin H. McIntyre, Presidential secretary, said that while no set speeches had been arranged there probably would be ceremonies at some of the Presidential stops. He said the trip would be a swift one, with a stopover in Seattle for probably one day and two nights.

SIR ANTON BERTRAM DEAD

CANTERBURY, Kent, Sept. 17 (AP)—Sir Anton Bertram, former Attorney-General of the Bahamas, died today, aged sixty-eight. He held the Bahamas office from 1902 to 1907 and was chief of Ceylon from 1918 to 1925.

TRAILED LONG DISTANCE

State police said they traced the prisoner to Honesdale, Pa., where he was used to work, and from there to the Upper West Side building here where he was arrested.

The cave in which Redlich was held, they said, was a small dugout in the ground with the entrance hidden by a garbage can with a false bottom.

They said Redlich's abductor talked to him for about three hours about the ransom, finally agreeing to a lower amount than the original $5,000, and finally releasing him with an admonition not to tell police.

Holds Russia To Blame for Piracy Acts

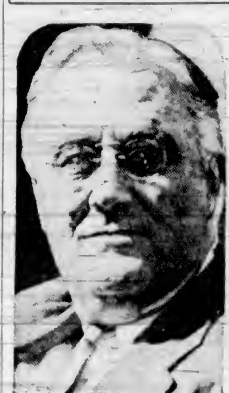

LONDON, Sept. 18 (AP)—Insurgent Spain today formally accused Russia of submarine piracy in the Mediterranean. A Reuters dispatch from Salamanca, Spain, reported.

The dispatch said insurgents claimed "irrefutable proof" that Russian submarines have attacked merchant shipping in the inland sea.

Francisco's communique said the facts would be submitted to the European "hands off Spain" committee in London.

No formal speeches have been arranged for the trip.

Mrs. Roosevelt will accompany the President on the trip and they will visit their daughter, Mrs. John Boettiger, in Seattle.

Mediterranean Hunt Now Includes Warships and Planes That Attempt to Interfere With Shipping—Fleets Get Orders to "Open Fire Immediately" on Any Marauding Craft

New Move Does Not Change Policy of Non-Intervention

LONDON, Sept. 17 (CP-Havas).—With the Mediterranean pirate hunt extended today to warships and planes, as well as submarines, Great Britain and France abandoned the non-intervention naval cordon around the Spanish coast to throw all available warships into the anti-piracy control.

The Anglo-French decision to withdraw non-intervention naval patrols from the Spanish coast, communicated today to the Earl of Plymouth, chairman of the twenty-seven power "hands off Spain" committee, indicates no change in general non-intervention policy, official sources stated. Its main object is to make the broader anti-piracy patrol as strong as possible.

ADD TO BRITISH FLEET

The move will add sixteen British destroyers to the Mediterranean patrol and bring the total number of British destroyers engaged in that task to fifty-two.

Hitherto the battleship Resolution, the fleet leader Keith and half the sixth destroyer flotilla have been engaged in the non-intervention patrol.

Members of Secret Band Grilled Concerning Murders—Suspects Arrested

PARIS, Sept. 17 (AP)—Assassination was added tonight to the suspected crimes for which "The Hooded Ones," mysterious secret society, were under investigation by French authorities.

Behind locked doors, four men, said to be members of the order, were grilled concerning the murder of one man and the strange disappearance of another. Both were members of "The Hooded Ones."

It was revealed a man known as "Maurice" was assassinated at San Remo, Italy, last December 14 after receiving a message signed "Aunt Irma," the customary signature of the organization. Police learned another member known only as "Jean Baptiste" disappeared about the same time.

Reports the secret society, described as having widespread ramifications through Paris and other key cities, plotted to overthrow the Government and set up a totalitarian state were given consideration in the inquiry. The society is strongly anti-Communist.

POLICE RAID HOMES

Police announced they arrested two Yugoslavians at Montauban in southwestern France, in connection with the "Hooded Ones" case.

Dr. Hjalmar Schacht Visiting in Italy and Not Expected to Resume High Office

BERLIN, Sept. 17 (AP)—The oft-repeated reports that Dr. Hjalmar Schacht's reign as financial genius of the Nazi regime was ended today appeared to have been fulfilled.

The Minister of Economics was in Italy on a "private trip" and it was disclosed he had not set foot in his offices at the ministry for weeks. Businessmen inquiring at Government offices were told that Dr. Schacht "no longer has any influence."

There were indications the gifted financier who steered Germany's financial and general economic affairs for so many different years would return neither to his ministry nor to the Reichsbank of which he is president.

Authorities in East Report Fewer Cases of Paralysis Now—Danger Not Past

(By the Canadian Press)
Nation-wide reports yesterday indicated the paralysis epidemic, which has held many sections of Canada in its grip since June, was on the wane. Health authorities, however, continued to warn the public the danger was not over and that precautionary measures should be continued.

Montreal medical authorities said there was no need for alarm in the slow spread of the disease in that city. Since June 1, sixty-four cases have been reported there. Ralph Johns, centre of New Brunswick epidemic, reported no new cases yesterday.

Ontario's case list began to dwindle, but authorities continued restrictions. Dr. Duncan MacArthur, Ontario deputy minister of Education, yesterday announced normal schools would not open before September 28.

BOSTON, Sept. 17 (AP)—Anxious eyes on the bridges of a dozen vessels tonight scanned the North Atlantic in a constantly widening search for the big British racing sloop Endeavour I, which was parted from her convoy in a gale late Monday morning.

Four coast guard cutters, in fan-like formation and with their powerful searchlights pointed northward toward Nova Scotia, searched hundreds of square miles of lonely ocean far off the New England coast.

A seaplane dived across the sky closer inshore, alert for a sign of the racing sloop and her crew of twenty.

right its offensive south and southwest of Peiping had rolled over the walled city of Chochow, Chinese advance base on the Peiping-Hankow Railway, forty miles from here. Fall of Chochow, the Japanese declared, isolated five Chinese divisions, some 50,000 men, along the railway north of that city. Two Japanese columns, moving plunder from either side of the railway, threatened to entrap and destroy this force.

The Japanese drive, launched with 40,000 men with the crossing of the Yungling River, thirty miles south of Peiping, Tuesday, gained added momentum and advanced twelve miles in twenty-four hours. Beyond the Yungling the River Chohu was crossed by pontoon by moonlight last night to bring the Japanese within sight of Chochow's walls.

Part of the force continued down the railway toward the main Chinese base in this area, Paofoing, eighty miles from Peiping. Japanese aircraft bombed troop concentrations there.

ADVANCE IN SHANSHI

The Japanese also reported rapid advances for their mobile column penetrating Shansi Province—west of the Peiping area—from the north. They said they had taken Hengyang, forty miles southeast of Hsueh, main railway town of North Shansi, and Laihshen, on the Shansi-Huoh border.

(Chinese headquarters in Nanking, however, declared Chinese aircraft had inflicted heavy punishment on Japan's Shansi expedition.)

Neutral Japanese observers said the Chochow success, probably would bring the Japanese shortly into contact with sterner resistance, that of the far better trained and armed divisions of the Central Government.

Thus far the advance has been made largely against regional North China forces, which have been unable to stand against Japan's mechanized juggernaut.

Mrs. Harvey and her son, Gordon, aged twenty-three, live on the ranch in a one-room shack. She claimed her husband lived there during the Summer of 1936, all three sleeping in the one room. She had repeatedly refused to live all the time with him in his cabin in the mountains.

On April 21 last, during her husband's absence, Mrs. Harvey went to the remote mountain home and removed to the ranch—groceries, mining equipment, smoking tobacco and shaving kit. This was too much for the aged yet vigorous husband to bear, and he swore out an information charging her with theft.

TELLS OF MEAN EXISTENCE

Mrs. Harvey claimed her husband had made the charge an issue to avoid supporting her that he had not provided for her for twenty-two years and that for years she and her son had but old rags and coats for bed covers with a shelter no better than a stable. When she took the supplies from the prospector's cabin she left a note for him, saying she and her son planned to put a second story on the shack and needed his help to work on the ranch this coming winter. She wrote that she was compelled to take this method of forcing him to return to their lowly home.

In her motion for appeal, the wife claimed that her husband took vegetables and meat from the ranch to his mining abode on her pack horse. She stated she did not want him to waste more years on the prospect. With her husband in the mountains and herself in jail the boy was left alone to harvest the crop and unless she was freed and sent back to help, their few head of stock would starve this winter. She claimed she was kept in a dark cell for nine days prior to her trial on the ground that she was insane, and only placed on trial when doctors pronounced her sane.

BEARS NO ILL-WILL

She bore no ill-will towards her aged husband. She just wanted him back home to spend the rest of his days on the ranch with her and their only son.

Magistrate Campbell's report was to the effect that Mrs. Harvey had repeatedly tried to force her husband to return to the ranch and had been warned on several occasions. The charge of theft had been laid to forestall "more serious trouble in the family."

The Court of Appeal, lending a sympathetic ear, took the ground that a wife could not in law be convicted of stealing from her husband with whom she was living and quashed the conviction.

What Today Means

"VIRGO"
If September 18 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m., and from 6:30 to 10:30 p.m. The danger periods are from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m., from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m., and from 10:30 p.m. until midnight.

This is a good day to get any plan you have in mind approved by those you expect to participate in it. Individual ideas are likely to differ greatly, regarding the regulation of household affairs, especially the disciplining of children. This condition makes it important that parents co-operate and refrain from taking any drastic stand where there is a divergence of opinion. Answers to questions are advisable for silence is apt to be misinterpreted, and is likely to be broken by an outburst of anger. False impressions regarding individual processes of reasoning will be created through careless remarks, so it will be good judgment to make no thoughtless comment if you are talking with comparative strangers. Married and engaged couples and those who "live-in," must be careful to do nothing justifying the charge that they are capricious, for they might have a difficult time proving they are not. If a woman and September 18 is your birthday, you perhaps depend entirely too much on the opinion of other people. Have confidence in your own ability, and success awaits you. With very little effort you ought to become proficient in the art of entertaining, especially as a witty conversationalist. You may expect to learn to relax after a strenuous day of work. Tense nerves usually result from intense thinking. Divert your thoughts by some sort of amusement and your efficiency will be greatly increased. As a designer, model, artist, author, teacher, or saleslady, your services ought to be in great demand. You most likely will have for a husband a man devoted to you and capable of making you very happy. The child born on September 18 is seldom lacking in any of the desirable attributes. Generally good-natured, mentally alert, agile and eager to make friends, it will lay a firm foundation for the future during its school days. If a man and September 18 is your natal day, you ought to be an indefatigable worker, with a knack of winning popularity. Some form of scientific, engineering, electrical, promotional, educational or journalistic work should win you a reputation and a fat bank account.

It is difficult to arrive at an exact total of Mennonites in the different countries, but the following figures according to the International Christian Press and Information Service indicate where some of the larger groups are to be found. Holland, 70,000; Germany, 12,000; U.S.A., 200,000; Canada, 90,000; Russia, probably 50,000; and 20,000 in the Province of Ontario. The third world conference of Mennonites took place last year, and as an outcome a central headquarters has been established at Karlsruhe, Germany for all international relief work under the direction of Prof. B. H. Unruh. Disturbing reports have been received from the Mennonites in Mexico, where the Government is encroaching upon the rights accorded to them regarding their schools, and the possibility of removal to Paraguay is under consideration. The World's Sunday School Association will be one of the sixty organizations housed in the Palais Wilson, until recently the home of the League of Nations. The new office will be under the direction of Dr. Adolf Keller, newly elected vice-president of the association and general secretary of the European central office.

OUTSIDERS DOMINATE RACING AT THE WILLOWS

VICTORIOUS IN FIVE EVENTS; BONNILLA LONG SHOT IN FIRST

Only Two Favorites Race to Victory During Day At Local Enclosure—The Pagan Scores Thrilling Win in Blanket Finish in Fourth—Handicap Features Today's Programme

With the favorites soundly beaten in five of the seven gallops, good prices ruled yesterday at the Willows track. Bonnilla, little better than a 28-1 shot, started the day of long prices by winning the initial sprint on the attractive card and paying $58.70. It was the "top" for the seven races, but a number of other good returns more than satisfied the lucky punters.

Miss Goldstream locally owned mare, checked in with her second triumph on the five-furlong racing surface, when she took the lion's share of the pot in the next sprint. Overlooked by the bettors, the winner returned $17.95. Victor of War was second. Miss Goldstream and Victor of War ran one-two last Monday at five and one-half furlongs. In this event the winner paid $27.40.

BLANKET FINISH
The real thrill of the day, and another nice price, came in the fourth gallop when Johnny Craigmyle, Victoria hardbust, brought The Pagan, practically a 9-1 shot, to the wire in a blanket finish, easily the best of the present meet. With five thoroughbreds roaring down the stretch in a driving finish The Pagan found a hole on the rail and drove through to get up in the last jump. He paid $19.70 straight, $9.10 place and $3.80 show. Buster Kid was second and Spazz third. Dark Devil, the favorite, was badly beaten and trailed a field of eight starters.

Ruffle Up, with Jockey Frankie Wilbourne in the saddle, topped the fifth gallop, and incidentally the final win of the day for the double-figure thoroughbreds, when he scored a half-length decision over Margery Dawn, the top selection. Miss Phyllis was third. Ruffle Up returned $15.05 for a $2 nose bet.

Emil Spoor, veteran Swiss rider, who piloted home his first winner of the meet Thursday, clicked in the top slot again yesterday with a leg up on Rapid Mortgage in the sixth race, the Speed Handicap. Made the choice by the punters, Rapid Mortgage was taken on top early and won easily. The Miss was second and Rondell was third. Following the race, officials stated that Spoor was fined for cutting across at the first turn.

SECOND WINNER
Johnny Craigmyle brought home his second winner of the day in the final race at five and one-half furlongs, when he scored with Capt. Laro. Princess Sally, a 15-1 shot, never far from the leaders, closed with a burst of speed and finished in the place slot. She paid $17.70 place and $7 show. Jungle Hen took the show portion of the money.

Frankie Wilbourne and Johnny Craigmyle led the hardbusts with two wins apiece, while C. Simpson, R. Russell and Spoor piloted home the other top thoroughbreds.

Eight events, seven flat races and the hurdles handicap, are listed on today's attractive card as the present meet reaches the halfway mark. Five sprints and three distance races with large fields for each gallop promise to provide many thrills for another large week-end crowd. The first post time is 1:45 o'clock.

Max Rosenbloom Given Decision Over J. Adamick

DETROIT, Sept. 17 (AP)—Maxie Rosenbloom, Los Angeles veteran of more than 300 ring battles, got up off the canvas to box his way to a ten-round decision over young Jimmy Adamick, Midland (Mich.) slugger, at Olympia Stadium tonight.

Adamick got over a sizzling right hand punch that put Rosenbloom down for an eight count in the second round. Rosenbloom got up, weathered the storm, and promptly took the offensive again in the third round.

He tied up Adamick continually, and the Midland youngster never got another chance to land the mighty punch with which he has flattened more than a score of foes in succession.

Max Schmeling Signs for Louis Bout

Max Schmeling, German heavyweight contender, is pictured here as he signed a contract with Promoter Mike Jacobs, of New York, to meet Joe Louis, heavyweight champion of the world, in a return bout next June. The Detroit "Brown Bomber" was knocked out by Schmeling in their first and only encounter. When Maxie knocked Joe out, the "Brown Bomber" was not champion, but now he holds the title that Max would like to win and become the first heavyweight fighter in history to ever regain his lost title.

Giants and Cubs Gain Victories; Lead Maintained

New York Club Still Three and a Half Games Ahead of Chicago in Flag Chase—Gumbert Twirls for the Giants—Hartnett Stars for Grimm's Crew—Cards Blank Bees, 2-0

NATIONAL LEAGUE
CINCINNATI, Sept. 17 (AP)—The New York Giants started out to hand the Reds a ball game today, but apparently spurred by word of a victory for the Cubs in Chicago, they changed their minds and their tactics and pulled out a 6-3 decision. The win, third straight for the New Yorkers, and fourth in the five starts of their current Western swing, enabled the Giants to maintain their three and one-half game lead in the National League pennant parade.

Harry Gumbert, the Giants' rejuvenated right-hander, got off to a shaky start and was tagged for two Rhinelanders runs in the first inning on a pair of hits. But he tightened up after that, allowed only three hits through the last eight frames, and breezed in with the victory; one his mates found the range on Paul Derringer.

Leading the attack were big Harry Danning, spark plug catcher for the Giants' right-handers, who belted two doubles; Johnny McCarthy, who contributed three singles, and Burgess Whitehead, who hit a pair of singles, one of which drove in two runs.

Cubs Come to Life
CHICAGO, Sept. 17 (AP)—Powering across six runs before a man was out in the first inning, a revamped Chicago Club team went on to defeat Philadelphia, 10-2, today to remain three and one-half games behind the league-leading New York Giants, who won at Cincinnati. Larry French held the Phils to five hits for his fourteenth victory of the season and his third in succession.

Gabby Hartnett led the revival that saw the Chicagoans, after five games in which they couldn't pass the seven-hit mark, put on their biggest inning in more than a month and pile up twelve hits against Elmer Burkhardt. The portly catcher doubled the bases loaded to score the first three runs of the game, and then drove in two more with an eight-inning triple. In between he surprised everybody, including himself, by beating out a bunt that led to another run.

Joe Marty, restored to center field in Manager Charlie Grimm's shake-up, drove in two first-inning runs with a single and double and scored in the third.

Draw Released for First Round of Tournament at Gorge Vale Club
Fifty members of the Gorge Vale Golf Club will tee off in the opening round of the Sharland Cup competition tomorrow morning, according to the draw released by Secretary Jim Smith. The field is expected to be increased as post entries will be accepted at the clubhouse.

Defending the handsome trophy on Sunday will be none other than Clyde Banfield, dark-haired young shotmaker, who has captured the cup for the last two years. He has been sharpening up his game in preparation for a third victory, so it will be Clyde against the field no matter how you figure it out.

Draw and starting times follow:

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON
Largest Sundial—One of the most interesting things I saw during my sojourn in the Philippines, was the huge sundial in the centre of the University of Manila campus. 65 feet wide and 40 feet high. It is a very accurate timepiece, with every minute of the day from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. clearly marked. The dial is made of heavy timbers and latticed framework, attractively covered with blossoming vines.

The Sun—The mean, average, distance of the sun from the earth is 92,900,000 miles. In the Summer time it is 94,452,000 miles away, and in the Winter it is 91,342,000 miles. The reason our climate is colder when the sun is actually nearer is due to the revolution of the earth on its orbit around the sun. The sun strikes the earth at an angle and also for a shorter time each day than during the Summer time.

That Body of Yours

(By James W. Barton, M.D.)

HISTORY OF EPILEPSY IN THE FAMILY SHOULD NOT PREVENT MARRIAGE

When a young man and a young woman are planning to marry, one of the disturbing elements that causes them deep unrest is whether or not their children may become epileptics because one of them—the young man or the young woman or perhaps a member of the family—has epilepsy.

While the treatment of epilepsy today makes it possible for most epileptics to live almost a normal life, nevertheless it is often a distressing and embarrassing ailment. A most encouraging statement for our young friends about to marry comes from Drs. H. A. Packard and M. Brown, as recorded in the Archives of Neurology and Psychiatry.

These physicians tell us that less than 7 per cent of cases of epilepsy show any loss of mental power, and there are, therefore, many more epileptics living a normal life at home, school and business than are found in institutions. "In the present investigation, 370 children of 162 epileptic parents receiving treatment in private practice were followed up. The great majority were between five and twenty-five years of age. Of the 342 children living only one had epilepsy and six had had infantile convulsions. None of the twenty-eight children who had died had shown any signs of epilepsy."

This low percentage of epilepsy, only one case in 370 children of 162 epileptic parents (who had no other nervous or mental ailment except the epilepsy) makes the chances of children of epileptic parents developing epilepsy quite small.

This means then that young people should not let the fact that there is a history of epilepsy in the family prevent them from getting married. However, when there are other forms of mental ailments in the family, the family physician should be consulted before marriage takes place.

I believe this research work of Drs. Packard and Brown will remove the idea from the minds of all of us that when epilepsy is in the family the children are likely to be epileptics.

Counsel: "How far were you from the scene of the accident?"

Witness: "Two yards, three inches."

Counsel: "Did you measure the distance?"

Witness: "Yes, I guessed some silly one would ask that question."

"May I ask what is your profession?" asked one of the older residents in the boarding house.

"Sculptor," said the newcomer.

"Good!" exclaimed the senior. "You are just the man we want. Would you mind carving this joint of beef?"

WHY IS IT CALLED THE "KEYSTONE SACK"?

Few sport activities boast as picturesque a lexicon as baseball. Perhaps the reason is that few are as frequently the subject of literary ebullitions on the part of sports writers. At any rate, these specialized authors have rechristened the baseball square the "diamond"—they have changed the names of left, right and centre field territory into corresponding "pastures", and the various bases have become "bags" or "sacks".

Second base particularly they have transformed into the "key-stone sack", making their metaphor undoubtedly from the fact that the "keystone" is the centre-stone of an arch and holds together the entire structure. Second base is the middle "base" or "sack". Hence the expression "keystone sack".
